Ex-Governor Seymour is spoken of a a candidate for Governor of New York with a view of bringing him out for the Presidency in 1880.

Col. John A. Martin has been unanimously nominated for Mayor of Atchison. His administration will be a credit to that thriving and beautiful city.

It has been determined by the executive committee of the Kausas State Temp erance association to open the next Na tional temperance camp meeting at Bismarck Grove on Thursday, August 14th.

The Leavenworth Times will "write up" the history of every county in the state for publication in that paper. Allow us to make a suggestion: arrange it so you can print a few thousand pamphlet editions afterwards.

About a week ago Senstor Beck object ed to the discussion of a bill, in Congress, because the Democratic caucus had not decided just what to do. Of course the Bepublicans riddled the gentleman bad ly. This will explain the sarcasm of Senator Anthony, who, on Monday, said "that if the chairman of the Democratic caucus, the ghairman of the executive symmittee of the Democratic caucus, or the chairman of the sub-committee of the nation.—Inter-Ocean. the executive committee of the Demo-cratic cances bad nothing more to pre-seat, he would more that the Senate new proceed to the consideration of exe cutive business."

large number of the Southern papers just now irresistably recalls the war era, which no portion of the country has more interest in forgetting than the South. It is to be hoped our 'red hot' contemporaries do not represent the sensible, conservative classes in the South. In the most friendly spirit we warn our contemporaries that they are entirely out of ter of "Uncle Jimmie, the Cripple," a order.

Charges of dishonesty have recently been set affoat against ex-Governor Brownlow, of Tennessee, which have re sulted in a letter from Mrs. Brownlow and statements from many prominent men. Commenting on them the Chattanooga Commercial says: "It it not necessary to say that the letter of Mrs Brownlow and interviews with R. T. Wilson and others has entirely cleared away the dastardly and cowardly impu tations cast upon Governor Brownlow's fame by the investigating committee. Those who knew Governor Brownlow never for a moment gave credence to the dander. Brownlow had faults, but of dishonesty he was not capable.'

The New York Tribune reminds Mr Lemar that Jeff. Davis has uttered a great many words "since the close of the war inconsistent with the greatness and glory of the Republic." Last Fourth of Cornell University has been appointed July he made a speech in Mississippi to the Berlin mission. Mr. White is a which was an elaborate defence of seces gentleman of pure character and schol- sion. The point of the whole speech was arly accomplishments, and the appoint that the promise to remain in the Union ment is generally recognized as credit- was no longer binding, and that the South, unless it can succeed in restoring the old doctrine of State sovereignty to its fullest extent, will have a perfecright to rebel again. This is the man whom the Pemocratic Senators eulogize, whose name Lamar groups with those of are pronounced consistent with the "greatness and glory of the Republic!"

Supreme Templar J. B. Hill has jufor the State of Kansas at Lawrence. A constitution and form of government has been adopted. After the adoption of the constitution the following Grand Temple officers were elected: L Emple Burlingame, grand past templar; John J. Kerr, Garnett, grand vice templar; Rev. E. D. Under this law it is the duty of district hoards to select a series of books within six months after the passage of the act and no change shall be made thereafter within five years except by petition of four-fifths of the legal voters of the district. This will be a little rough on school book agents, but will save lots of money and bother to the patrons of the schools.

The New York Herald has had great faith in the Southern politicians, but it now pleads guilty to a great disappointment. Commenting on the spirit shown by many journals in the South, the Herald says: "The political literature in a large number of the Southern papers just now irresistably recalls the war era,

THE DOMESTIC MONTHLY.

The April number of this popular magazine shows the spring styles in all the fullness of their perfection and elegance. The large array of costumes and arrangets recovered include norse of garments represented include none of those abstract and fanciful designs, which are so often seen in fashion journals, but such as will be worn by ladies of taste in the street or at their homes. A large array of styles for children's costumes also contained, which, like those for ladalso contained, which, like thore for fac-ies, are accompanied with full and pre-cise descriptions. The opening review of fashion gives a full account of every thing new concerning dress, while the articles of combination custumes, trim mings, seasonable fabrics, shoes and dippers, millinery, coiffures, lingerie, do mestic art, etc., supply an abundance o information concerning those topics. The many fine illustrations and the su perbly handsome colored plate are, as usual, a very attractive feature.

The literary department is filled with its usual choice contents, among which the principal attractions are an install ment of Mary Cecil Hay's charming se rial, "Her Three Lovers an aminimale-sketch called "A Plain Man," the sixth in the series of "Flower Talks," by Mr
